

Helping Your Young Child with Autism Communicate and Interact

Empowering families with knowledge and tools to promote their children's development

A 4-class series for parents and family members of children from ages birth to 5 years with an Autism Spectrum Disorder.

Topics will include:

- How Autism impacts your child's social-communication development
- Understanding why communication and interaction is so difficult and stressful for your child
- How you as a parent influence your child's communication
- How to help your child communicate, interact and play

Dates: April 13, 20, 27 and May 4, 2010

Time: 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Location:

Kaiser Permanente Pleasanton
Department of Mental Health

3825 Hopyard Road, Suite 140
Pleasanton, CA 94588

Instructors: Lianne Zerbe, LCSW
& Sylvia Castillo, LCSW

Who: Kaiser Permanente members with a child from ages birth to 5 years with an ASD diagnosis

Fee: $50 per family pay at time of registration. Please arrive 15-minutes prior to event.

Call to register with Lianne Zerbe at (925) 847-5587