

Resources for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Experiencing Domestic Violence

Here you can learn about internet safety and how to view websites without the abuser finding out:

<http://www.abanet.org/domviol/>

CUAV (Community United Against Violence):

<http://www.cuav.org/>

This website is from a San Francisco based organization.

California Department of Health Services: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) Family Violence Referral List:

<http://www.dhs.ca.gov/epic/fvrefer/documents/glbtpref.pdf>

This site provides a list of LGBT sensitive and LGBT specific domestic violence services in Northern and Southern California.

The New York City Gay and Lesbian Anti-Violence Project:

<http://www.avp.org/>

On the left of the AVP homepage, choose Services, and then scroll down on the right of the page until you find Domestic Violence. Here you will find specific information for LGBT women and men.

The Northwest Network – Support and advocacy for bisexual, transgender, lesbian and gay survivors of abuse and dating violence:

<http://www.nwnetwork.org/>

This Seattle-based website contains extensive information about LGBT and domestic violence.